

SOCIETY

The Wednesday Bridge Club

The Wednesday Bridge Club will not meet this week on account of school week, but will be entertained the following Wednesday, May 31, by our popular little matron Mrs. Sam Watkins.

Friday Bridge

The Friday Bridge Club met last week with Mrs. Henry Hall, Mrs. Frank Thurmond making the highest score. Besides the members of the club, Mrs. Hall had as her guests: Mrs. H. H. Kelly, Mrs. H. G. Bush, Misses Mary Mahoney, and Thresa Clark. The club will meet this week with Mrs. H. M. Peyton.

Twelve Needles Entertain

Ten members of the Twelve Needle Club invited their husbands to a very delightful luncheon at the Sundquist home, Monday evening. Those who enjoyed the occasion were the host and hostess, Messrs. and Mesdames, John H. Lester, H. S. Reams, Chas. Scott, Dr. G. H. Young, J. C. Clemens, Frank Nordhaus, Frank Samuels, W. C. Rawson and Carl Pugh.

Jolly Motor Party

Mrs. R. F. Hamilton on Saturday chaperoned a jolly party of young ladies to the military camps at Columbus, taking many nice things for the members of Company "T". Those who enjoyed the day were: Misses Josie Goodding, Bessie Comer, Jessie Guiney, Isabel Sevier, Josephine and Anna Jacobsen, Catherine Laughren, Beatrice Hillis, Helen Holt, Laura Comer, Priscilla and Olive Whitehill, Iona Millard, Kathleen Sullivan, Viva Jacobs, Eula Holstein, Bertha Graham, Birdie Phillips, Martha Lindauer, Juliette Rosch, and Fern Van Eaton.

Fete Champetre

That capricious of dames, Lady Weather, put on her pest smiles and furbelows for the elaborate Fete Champetre of Mrs. Thomas Marshall Thursday afternoon, and the Smart Set were all there in the bewildering beauty of entrancing spring frocks. It was a perfectly lovely garden party and the "piece de resistance" was a floral contest, which was the clever work of the hostess and the ladies who solved the contest were, in the first series, Mrs. Ascha Field, the consolation to Mrs. C. J. Laughren. In the second series, Mrs. Henry Hall, with the consolation to Mrs. J. A. Mahoney. In the third series, Mrs. J. B. Taylor, with the consolation to Mrs. Frank Thurmond. The tables were arranged in the garden; and with the emerald carpet of the soft velvety grass, the blue canopy of the azure dome, the soft whispering zephyrs of the early spring, and the fragrant roses blooming amidst their green foliage formed a most exquisite setting for the picture of loveliness formed by the guests and hostess as they gathered in the maze of the floral contest. Mrs. Marshall served a delicious and dainty repast during the hours of reception. The young ladies who served refreshments were Misses Mary Mahoney, Thresa Clark, Faye McKeyes, Elizabeth Waddill, Katherine Wamel, Miss Martha Lindauer was at the punch table. Miss Clark and Miss Mahoney wore lovely frocks of white offset with blue, Miss Wamel was in white with touches of coral, Miss McKeyes wore a lovely floral effect in sheer organdie, and Miss Waddill was in a very lovely white toilet, and Miss Lindauer wore a modish frock of old rose. The ladies invited for the first series were Mesdames C. J. Laughren, Ascha Field, Sundquist, De Long, Donaldson, Hudson, Ament, John Lester, M. J. Moran, Sherman, Meyer; and for the second series from 3.30 to 4.30, Mesdames Mahoney, Kelly, Bush, Pollard, Shepard, Moir, Hall, Miss Jensen, Maurice Nordhaus, J. R. Waddill, John McTeer, Upton, and for the third series from 4.30 Mrs. Reams, J. B. Taylor, W. C. Rawson, Steed, Mrs. Alice Smith, Esther Borch, Beatrice Walter, Katherine Shepard, Martha Ede, Mrs. Ralph Greyson, Miss Ruth Merrill, Mrs. J. G. Kerr, Mrs. L. Williams, Mrs. J. S. Vaught, Mrs. J. G. Cooper. Mrs. Marshall was heartily congratulated by all the guests upon the beauty of the charming afternoon and the fete champetre will long be remembered among the beautiful spring entertainments.

You never hear a dressmaker say that figures cannot lie.

The Zepelin wrecks, according to reports, are almost as dangerous as the Zeppelins raids.

What the Old Guard republicans hope is to make Sagamore Hill our equivalent of Dead Man's Hill.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Graphic is mighty proud of its advertisers.

R. E. McDough of Whitewater was in the city Tuesday.

Prof. D. S. Robbins has gone to Arizona on a mining deal.

Mrs. T. H. Wagner of Tyrone was a Deming visitor Tuesday.

Statisticians of the agriculture department have not yet reported on the promising crop of June brides.

There is a woman's head on our coin, says the Boston Transcript. Sure. That's why money talks.

Uncle Cannon has reached the mature age of 80, but we fear he will never be old enough to know better.

J. A. Mahoney left Monday night on an extended business trip through the state.

Lynnford Peterson will be home from the Wisconsin University in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Barracks left yesterday for Indiana, for their summer vacation.

R. F. Fitz and A. W. Lawrence of Lordsburg were registered at the New Dines Tuesday.

Mrs. W. C. Rawson and son, Osgood, have gone to Illinois and Michigan for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lane will be at home after June 1, at No. 4 apartment in the Lester House.

Mrs. W. E. Foulks has been very ill, but we are much pleased to note her improvement at this time.

T. B. Templeton was in from the ranch Monday to meet his daughter, who came from Alpine, Tex.

Harry Lamb and wife T. W. Scott, E. A. Blevins and R. J. Parlin, were down from Silver City Monday.

John Artel and son, John G., of California have come to the Mimbres Valley to invest in a tract of good land.

Kahn Taylor is home from the University of New Mexico and has a position at the Nordhaus store on Gold avenue.

J. Olquin of Hurley was a visitor in town Wednesday and took home a new Winona wagon from F. C. Peterson's warehouse.

Mrs. Barbara Rawson accompanied by her grandson, Kenneth Reams, left Tuesday for a summer vacation in Michigan.

Loomis Taylor, who recently underwent a very severe surgical operation, is now convalescing and expects to be out in a few days.

Among the early departures for the summer season will be Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Pollard who leave about June 17, for Long Beach, Cal.

Senator Upton, J. A. Mahoney, H. J. Bush, John J. Hyatt and E. H. Vallandigham attended the democratic state convention at Albuquerque this week.

Speaking of trophies, Judge Pennington has won a few nice ones for marksmanship when he was on duty for Uncle Sam in Wyoming, many years ago.

Frank Samuels will go to Chicago June 3, to attend the National Progressive party convention as delegate. J. M. McTeer represents Bernillo county.

Prof. W. B. McFarland of Silver City goes to Alamogordo next year. It is a distinct loss to Silver and a mighty big gain to Alamo. 'Mac' is one of the very best.

Miss Minnie Swope has been re-elected to guide the educational affairs in District No. 2, Santa Rita. She is invited to return at a very handsome increase in salary.

Mr. Efton Lindsey the efficient and popular cashier at the Harvey House will leave at an early date for a month's sojourn at Long Beach, Cal.

John Keeley, is planning an extended tour to California. He expects to leave shortly for a lengthy stay at the fashionable centers of Pasadena, San Diego, Venice, and other points of interest.

Mrs. H. L. Kelly and daughter of Mogollon were in the city Monday, en route to Amarilla. They expect to locate in Deming for the purpose of taking advantage of our splendid schools.

Mrs. Mary Alexander, of Swanton, North Carolina, N. C., accompanied by her son L. B. Alexander and his wife of Manila, P. I., will visit the Gaskill's at Miramichi farm, early in June.

Deane Dickason, a nephew of Geo. D. Robinson was the honor student among 800 graduates of the Denver High School this year. This honor gives him a four year scholarship at the University of Colorado.

Mrs. Mayme Williams is visiting for a week in Columbus as the guest of Mrs. J. H. Ryan and will participate in all the gayeties of the town. Mrs. Ryan will give a number of elaborate functions in honor of Mrs. Williams.

Sergeant Ralph Lynd was here from the front, Wednesday, rejoicing that the government surgeon didn't let him go into the service. It would have upset his plans very much to join the regulars. He'd much rather join the benedicts. Welcome home, any time.

Grand Master A. W. Pollard accompanied by Mrs. Pollard and their daughter Miss Wandra Pollard and Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Moir motored to Hillsboro yesterday, the grand master and his district deputy to inspect the blue lodge. Last week official inspection was made of Las Cruces and Anthony.

A coronor's jury rendered a verdict in the McSherry case that he came to his death in a purely accidental manner. Judge Homer Tarbill empaneling the following jury: A. L. Foster, S. J. Hale, N. A. Werning, Geo. Nelson, John A. McKamey and Macedonio Torres.

Miss Wilma Graham, of Lake Valley, spent a few days here last week en route from Columbus, where she spent the winter, to Silver City to Graham was visiting at the Gibson ranch at the time of the Villa raid in Columbus and missed the thrills and excitement of that time.

Miss Helen Swope expects to leave shortly on an extended trip to Chicago, Ill., on a visit to friends after spending some time there she will be joined by her sister Mary Lou. From Chicago, the Misses Swope will visit Wisconsin friends and later on sojourn for quite a while with relatives in Louisville, Ky.

A very charming visitor in our midst has been Mrs. John McTeer, the guest of Miss Elizabeth Waddill, and also Miss Morris Nordhaus. Mrs. McTeer left Thursday night for her home in Albuquerque and was among those who attended the Marshall fete champetre last Thursday.

J. M. Emery and two sons are farming about 75 acres this season. They have 65 acres in regular crops and ten acres in truck garden to be handled by the Deming Shipping Association which is bound to be a success. The Emerys are farmers who farm on the farm with their own personal hands, that's why they succeed.

Supt. McCurdy and his able corps of assistants have given a good account of themselves and it is fully evidenced by the successful culmination of the year's work for the term 1915-16.—Carrizozo Outlook.

Prof. McCurdy started his school work in Deming and we're proud of him.

Few of the Columbus Sunday visitors caught by the Graphic's foreman include H. H. Kelly and wife, J. W. Phillips and family, E. M. Pride and family, Supt. J. B. Taylor and family, Mary Lou and Helen Swope, E. A. Malcom, Walter Russell and wife, A. C. Rathel and wife, Everett Wells and wife, Albert Fields and wife, Miss Beatrice Walter, J. M. Barracks and family, Miss Irene "Arkson, Mrs. Dr. Armstrong, Miss Faye McKeyes, Miss Margaret Randolph, Willis Perry, Mrs. Tony Deckert, Will Wells and family, Mrs. Miller and daughter, and Louis Dornbush.

E. G. Andrews and J. E. Goodwyn piloted the "Ice Cream Special", the ice cream being furnished by the Palace Drug Store and a large number of cakes by the good Deming ladies. There was also a big box of roses for the soldier boys.

A good way to get one's mind off the war is to go to a ball game where all minor considerations are forgotten.

Copyright 1916
The House of Kuppenheimer

Now Is Renewal Time!

Nature is blooming forth again in all her radiance she is discarding the dull drabs of the past season and garbing herself in her sprightliest and prettiest hues.

Who is there who would not attune himself with the season's spirit and don the fresh, Spring styles and colors in his clothes?

Kuppenheimer Clothes

answer the Spring dress-up question for every man, young and old. The Wayne model shown here will particularly please you young men who buy your clothes on the basis of exclusive and advanced style. Note the natural body conforming lines, the graceful lapels that roll to the second button, while the fronts of the coat gradually round away.

And you will find a good cloth supporting this style—a vital factor as to how a style will look and hold its shape. This and other attractive Kuppenheimer models are to be found in our store in myriads of Spring colors and patterns.

$17 and $25

NORDHAUS'

"Deming's Greatest Store"